

Willkommen to Greater "Zinzinnati's" Oldest Festival since 1866 Schützenfest

What is the Schützenfest?

Schützenfest in the Greater Cincinnati Area is a traditional festival of the Catholic Kolping Society. A hand-carved eagle is used as a target for the marksmen.

The individual to shoot the last part of the eagle has the honor of being proclaimed King for the year. All profits from the festival benefit the social, sports, and cultural sports exchanges, and myriad of charitable and philanthropic interests of the Catholic Kolping Society.

- German American Food and Music • Domestic and Imported Beer • Pork and Chicken Dinners in Air Conditioned Hall (Sat. & Sun.) • Booths, Games, Rides for Children
